

Biblical DISC Assessment Certification Agenda

Pre-Class Online Assignments

In order to maximize our time together in the classroom, we request that you do the following before coming to class:

1. Complete an online Biblical DISC Assessment.
2. Review and study your Biblical DISC report to become familiar with your DISC behavioral style and the content of the report.
3. Complete a 45 minute recorded webinar titled Understanding DISC Behavioral Styles which will provide the basics of the DISC model of behavior*. Topics covered include:
 - Why Use DISC?
 - DISC History
 - DISC Lecturette – The Four DISC Styles
 - Understanding Your Personal DISC Style
 - Discovering How to Adapt Your Style
 - Jesus' Example of Adaptability, and The Titanium Rule

* You will receive your Biblical DISC assessment code and a link for the webinar approximately four weeks prior to the Biblical DISC Certification program.

Recommended Self Study

Here is a short list of recommended books to help you understand the DISC model

- The Great Connection (great primer on DISC using a story)
- People Smart (excellent text on DISC and marketplace applications)
- Understanding How Others Misunderstand You (Biblical applications)
- The Treasure Tree (great book for children using animals for DISC)
- The Two Trails: A Treasure Tree Adventure
- Different Children, Different Needs : Understanding the Unique Personality of Your Child

Reinforcement and Support

After you leave the classroom the learning and support continues:

- Digging Deeper into DISC Practitioner Calls: On the 3rd Tuesday of every month, you are invited to join a one-hour conference call with other DISC Certified Practitioners to provide you with on-going learning and practical application insights using DISC assessments. We encourage you to master your knowledge and skills in using DISC assessments by participating in these calls. An email invitation will be sent one week prior to the call.
- Telephone coaching and support will be available at no fee whenever you need advice on using the DISC model in training or coaching applications. Also, Author Ken Voges is available for a nominal coaching fee to advise you on using the Biblical DISC Assessment.
