

RUTH, CHICAGO

Lead like Jesus is impacting the world for Jesus: one leader at a time. Here is the story of our friend Ruth, who recently passed away in an automobile accident.

Ruth knew what it meant to lead like Jesus. For almost ten years, one week a month, Ruth taught Lead Like Jesus, along with a team of volunteers, in a jail ministry. Ruth helped the men get re-established within the community after their sentence was served.

Ruth did outreach for Zion Lutheran Church, but her ministry didn't stop there. She cared deeply about her community in inner-city Chicago to the point that she would drive through the streets during tense nights to help resolve conflict and break up potential fights. Ruth also went to classes to become a master gardener and built a community garden so that the residents could have fresh food. She served meals at her church, led Bible study groups, and taught children manners during Wednesday night suppers.

The world is desperate for more people like Ruth, who lead like Jesus in their families, churches, businesses, and communities.

The church on this property opened for the first time just two months ago, and James has already baptized more than twenty people in the Indian Ocean.

JOHN, VIETNAM

Meet John, a student in Vietnam.

John has a new perspective on leadership since he participated in Ignite student training with 130 others in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam.

"After the [Ignite] training, I realized my weakness. I have not had confidence in myself or in my leadership, even though I do a lot of activities. I am accountable for two small groups, and I realized I need to listen to God's words and to pray about everything."

John has begun his journey of leading like Jesus. Would you pray for other students like John who need to hear the message of Jesus as the ultimate leadership Model?

REBECCA, SOUTH AFRICA

Meet Rebecca, who is training to become a teacher in South Africa.

Rebecca's life was changed after she attended a Lead Like Jesus Encounter training. God transformed the way she understands forgiveness, reconciliation, and what's next for her future. She says:

"God meant for me to be there ... it truly WAS an encounter. SO MUCH healing has happened. I forgave my ex-husband. He has faded out of my son's life. And I made a decision to release all those emotions that were weighing me down. I never thought that day would ever come that I could forgive him and release it to God to work in his life. I've also received so much confirmation that teaching is where God wants to use me for His Kingdom building."
